Dear [REDACTED],

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2025/00389

We are writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited ("Post Office") on 6 June, which has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("FOIA").

In your email, you have requested the information shown verbatim in bold below:

"Please could you provide information on details of food related incidents that have been reported within/towards/attributed to catering assets/outlets within your corporate office portfolio, for the period 2024 as a result of:

- breaches in operating procedures
- allergen/intolerance errors
- cross contamination
- under cooked/raw
- foreign objects
- poor supply chain

Please also provide details and corrective actions around any incident."

We can confirm that Post Office does not hold the information you have requested as there were no reported incidents at any of our sites over the course of 2024.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of this response, you do have a right to request an internal review. You can do this by writing to the address above within 40 working days of receipt of this response stating your reasons for your internal review request or alternatively, by emailing information.rights@postoffice.co.uk.

If, having requested an internal review by Post Office, you are still not satisfied with our response you also have a right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at:
