Dear [REDACTED],

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2025/00402

We are writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited ("Post Office") on 11 June, which has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("FOIA").

In your email, you have requested the information shown verbatim in bold below:

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, I request the following information:

A complete list of all companies, agencies, partners, and service providers with whom Royal Mail shares personal data, including but not limited to:

Name, address, change of address, forwarding mail, and email data.

Companies termed as "special interest."

Service providers such as marketing agencies, survey sites, website hosts, printers, postmasters, and retail agency partners.

Subsidiary companies providing services.

Regulatory bodies, courts, law enforcement agencies.

Partner companies supplying products or services, or handling queries/complaints.

Please kindly inform me of any instances where data is subject to any and all such processes.

In the event that you determine some of the information I have requested to be exempt from disclosure, please redact exempt information with black boxes, instead of snipping or excerpting, and please state which category of exemption you believe applies to the information.

Please can the individual replying to this request please provide their name for further reference.

We can confirm we do not hold the information you have requested. Post Office separated from Royal Mail Group ("Royal Mail") on 01 April 2012; therefore, we do not have access to information held by Royal Mail, including the requested information.

Whilst Royal Mail are not subject to the FOIA, you may wish to contact them to see if they hold any of the requested information. You could try Customer Services on 08457 740 740 or online at <https://personal.help.royalmail.com/app/webforms/contact/c/310>.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of this response, you do have a right to request an internal review. You can do this by writing to the address above within 40 working days of receipt of this response stating your reasons for your internal review request or alternatively, by emailing information.rights@postoffice.co.uk.

If, having requested an internal review by Post Office, you are still not satisfied with our response you also have a right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner's Office
