Dear [REDACTED],

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2025/00634

We are writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited ("Post Office") on 3 September 2025, which has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("FOIA").

In your email, you have requested the information shown verbatim in bold below:

"Can you confirm whether any of the Voice of the Postmaster Committee (<https://votp.org.uk/index.php/about-us/committee-members>) have Post Office email addresses?

If they do, is there any agreement between Post Office Ltd and Voice of the Postmaster that enables the Committee to have a Post Office email address?"

We can confirm that Post Office does hold the information you have requested. One Voice of the Postmaster Committee member has a Post Office email address.

However, we have decided that the information should be withheld under sections 40(2) and 40(3A) of the FOIA as the information constitutes personal data relating to other persons. These sections exempt personal information from disclosure if that information relates to someone other than the applicant, and if disclosure of that information would breach any of the data protection principles in Article 5(1) of the UK General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR").

We consider that disclosure of this information is likely to breach the first data protection principle, which provides that personal data must be processed lawfully, fairly, and in a transparent manner. Disclosure would not constitute 'fair' processing of the personal data because the individual involved would not reasonably expect their name to be disclosed in relation to this request for information.

We do not hold any information on whether an agreement exists that enables the Committee to have a Post Office email address.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of this response, you do have a right to request an internal review. You can do this by writing to the address above within 40 working days of receipt of this response stating your reasons for your internal review request or alternatively, by emailing information.rights@postoffice.co.uk.

If, having requested an internal review by Post Office, you are still not satisfied with our response you also have a right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner's Office
